SAVE THE DATE!!

SUNY REMOTE TEACHING INSTITUTE

TEACHING & LEARNING IN THE AGE OF COVID-19

The SUNY Remote Teaching Institute is designed to help faculty prepare for a Fall 2020 semester that may present unique challenges to course design and delivery. This FREE institute is brought to you by the SUNY CPD in collaboration with campuses across the state.

Registration will be available for individual webinars or the entire series. There will also be asynchronous components offered throughout the summer for those looking for a more in-depth experience, opportunities for sharing & collaboration, and mentoring by content experts.

JUNE 22-26

Practical Course Design Webinar Series
- Content delivery alternatives
- Good course design practices
- Rethinking your learning goals
- Building a flexible syllabus
- Alternative assessment strategies across disciplines
- Academic integrity
- Using the OSCQR rubric to simplify course development
- Ensuring equitable access

JUNE 26 - AUG. 14

Asynchronous materials, resource sharing, collaboration, and mentoring

JULY 15

Progress Check (Synchronous)

AUGUST 10-14

Flexible Instruction Webinar Series
- Sub-topics for this series are TBD

Registration coming in early June!

Follow Jamie Heron on Workplace for up-to-date announcements
Questions? jamie.heron@suny.edu