

New York State University Police

Police Officer Annual Performance Appraisal Instructions

PURPOSE

The purpose of any performance appraisal program is employee development. The value of performance appraisal is in the process of communication between supervisor and employee and not merely in the completion of the form. Specific objectives of the Performance Appraisal program are:

- To increase professional development, skill level, and performance of each employee;
- To strengthen working relationships between the supervisor and employee;
- To clarify job duties and responsibilities;
- To establish mutually-understood standards for measuring performance; and
- To aid in promotion and retention.

PREPARATION

Supervisor: Complete the appropriate sections of this annual performance appraisal in advance of your conference with the employee and be prepared to discuss it in detail.

Staff employee performance rating: Select the most appropriate box(s) after considering the performance topic using the 1-5 (5 = best) rating system. If a rating of 1 or 5 is selected supporting documentation or specific statements must be made in the evaluation.

Summarize the performance over the past year: This section gives you the opportunity to highlight the employee's strengths and areas of improvement opportunities. Specifics and details make the evaluation more meaningful.

Indicate or list suggested ways, if any, employee can improve job performance: List the goals, upcoming projects, and training/self-development planned for the employee. Discuss during the employee conference to confirm target dates.

Overall rating of staff employee performance: Select the most appropriate statement(s) to describe the overall appraisal of the employee's performance. More than one statement can be selected if more than one description is necessary to most clearly reflect the employee's performance.

Employee Comments (optional): This area is provided to the employee to make comments regarding the evaluation or evaluation process.

Signature: The signature area certifies the contents of the performance appraisal have been discussed. Signatures are not optional.

Supporting documents can be attached, if necessary.

Distribution of Completed Form - Original maintained in the department. A copy is provided to the Human Resource Management Office and the employee.
